

Application Requirements

An applicant can apply for PhD study even if he/she does not hold a research master's degree. The normative period of study for articulated MPhil-PhD study is 4 years. Subject to satisfactory academic performance and research progress, postgraduate studentships will be provided to students throughout their normative period. However, holders of a research master's degree from a Hong Kong UGC funded institution may only be eligible for a shorter normative period of 3 years for PhD study. An applicant can also apply for MPhil study with a normative period of 2 years.

Applicants for the MPhil Stream

1. have graduated from a recognized university with a Bachelor degree or equivalent in a relevant engineering, science or medical discipline, normally with honours not lower than Second Class; OR
2. have graduated from a programme of a recognized university with a Bachelor degree or equivalent in a relevant engineering, science or medical discipline, normally achieving an average grade of not lower than 'B' in undergraduate courses.

Applicants for the PhD Stream

1. have a research Master's degree from a recognized university in equivalent in a relevant engineering, science or medical discipline; OR
2. have a Bachelor degree, normally with Second Class Honours in the upper division or above; OR
3. have been registered as a PhD student at a recognized university for at least one year, and have been approved for application by the affiliated Graduate School.

Notes on English Language Requirements for Admission
